1 DEFINITIONS.

- 1.1 "IaaS Layer" means cloud-based, integration software required to create, maintain and support customized processes for mapping and/or communication flexibility.
- 1.2 "Data Input" means the data structures agreed by Sovos and Customer that the Customer will deliver to the Sovos IaaS Layer, and maintain, including all mandatory information required to fulfill contracted Sovos compliance services.
- 1.3 "Mapping Profiles" means the mapping and transformation of Data Inputs into specific Sovos usable data set(s).
- 1.4 "Design Services" means the availability of expert resources to design, configure, and implement the initial required set of Mapping Profiles based upon the agreed Data Inputs using Sovos Best Practices.
- 1.5 "Sovos Best Practices" means the use of specific mapping or communication definitions according to Sovos understanding of local compliance requirements. Such best practices include input file formats as well as communication protocol restrictions according to the compliance needs of each contracted compliance jurisdiction.
- 1.6 "End Points" means any of the following supported communication mechanisms: sFTP, AS2, S3, Custom API integrations, subject to Sovos Best Practices.

- 2 DATA AVAILABILITY AND ACCURACY. Customer is solely responsible for the accuracy of Customer's data imported into the System. Sovos mapping customization focuses on the transformation of data for local requirements, but not in the creation of Data Inputs.

- 3 PRODUCTS. All Sovos Cloud Software products listed above are licensed separately. Any changes to the initial Data Inputs will be agreed separately by the Parties and may require additional Sovos Services to be contracted through a SOW or a Change Order. The SAP Framework Products included in this data sheet are Add-On offerings to the corresponding Sovos Compliance Network – [COUNTRY] that provides a customizable SAP-based solution to enable integration of supported SAP applications with the cloud-based Software.
