

Customer Reference Program

Join the Sovos Customer Reference Program to become a thought leader and guide other professionals on their journey to sustainable tax and regulatory compliance.

Why Join?

Thought leadership

Guide and influence other tax and IT professionals navigating the complexities of tax and regulatory compliance.

Showcase your success

Highlight how Sovos solutions have driven powerful outcomes for your company's compliance journey.

Connect with peers

Network with a community of professionals eager to learn from your experiences and accomplishments.

Perks for participation

Active members of the reference program enjoy a range of perks, from tokens of appreciation to exclusive invitations to events like the User Feedback Forum.

What to Expect?

Speak with prospective client(s) about the advantages of utilizing Sovos products and services.

You may be asked to interact with prospective customers once per quarter. Our Customer Reference Program is designed to align with your schedule and availability.

Ready to Highlight Your Achievements?

Please reach out to your Sovos representative or email referenceprogram@sovos.com to get started.

Together, we can assist in alleviating the tax and regulatory burdens faced by businesses worldwide.
